

MATTHEW WEISS, 31

Vice President
Weiss Realty Co
Moonachie

Weiss is a natural leader with excellent communication skills who knows how to be an effective broker in the most complex transactions. He has a great understanding of the market on a macro level, with both global and local market knowledge. Weiss has a true sense for real estate trends and future developments. His current responsibilities include management, acquisitions, new development and leasing. From 2013 to 2014, Weiss was the broker in three separate lease transactions totaling 82,428 square feet, with a total aggregate rental of over $35 million at 10 Exchange Place in Jersey City on behalf of CarePoint Health and 1 Journal Square in Jersey City. In 2013 he was the broker in the successful completion of a major transaction with the sale of the 338-unit Skyline and Boulevard apartment complexes in Hasbrouck Heights, NJ to the New York-based Kushner Cos. for $57.5 million. ♦
